Target Audience

- Registered nurses preparing for certification in nursing professional development (NPD)
- RNs new to the NPD role
- RNs desiring additional education in the NPD processes

Program Description

This program is intended to enable the learner to successfully complete the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) certification examination in nursing professional development. In addition, it enables novice NPD practitioners to develop foundational knowledge for the specialty.

Instructed by Greg Durkin, M.Ed., RN, NPDA-BC®

Greg Durkin holds the titles of Sr. Professional Development Specialist; Program Manager for Nursing Education; and Associate Director for Interprofessional Education of the BCH Academy for Teaching and Educational Scholarship and Innovation at Boston Children's Hospital, where he was the recipient of the 2018 Nursing Leadership Award. He has been in the field of professional development since 1990, working in tertiary care, academic, and community health settings. Greg is on the editorial board for the Journal for Nurses in Professional Development (JNPD) and has published articles on development of web-based courses and orientation evaluation. An accomplished speaker, Greg has presented at countless regional and local associations and organizations on diverse topics such as needs assessment, cultural awareness, having a questioning attitude, competency, professional joy, and teamwork. Greg was the recipient of the 2011 ANPD Excellence in Professional Development Educator/Facilitator Practice Award, is a co-author to the Certification Preparation Study Guide, and was a section editor for the 5th edition of ANPD's Core Curriculum for Nursing Professional Development.

Earn 16 Hours of Continuing Nursing Education

Association for Nursing Professional Development is accredited with distinction as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Course Completion

Attendance at each full day is required to receive contact hours. Partial credit may be awarded for each day at the instructor's discretion. Completion of the online course evaluation is required.

Conflict of Interest

No faculty or planners have a conflict of interest with the development or implementation of this course.

Pre- and Post-test Information

Earn up to two (2) additional contact hours by taking the NPD Cert Prep Course Pre- and/or Post-test in the ANPD Professional Development Center. Each test, which contains 60 questions, awards one (1) contact hour.

Measure your progress made during the course by comparing your pre-test score with your post-test score.

In addition, the tests allow you to identify which domains should be areas of focus when preparing for the certification exam. Instructions to access the Pre- and Post-test will be provided to attendees two (2) weeks before the course.
